

GSTN Advisory Time Frame for GST Registration

GSTN Advisory dt. 28.02.2024

- Some taxpayers have reported instances of delay in GST registration despite successful Aadhaar authentication.
- GSTN has now clarified that those taxpayers who has undergone Aadhaar authentication but has been identified for detailed verification based on risk profile, their application for registration will be processed within thirty days of application submission.
- The online tracking module will be updated to reflect the processing of registration applications that require detailed verification.
- Accordingly, this is to state that in some cases, GST registration of new tax-payers may take upto 30 days
